NATURAL PARADISE BRAZIL

18 days / 15 nights

DAY 1 (Wednesday) INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT TO FOZ DE IGUAZU

International flight from any airport to Foz de Iguazu.

DAY 2 (Thursday) FOZ DO IGUAZU

Arrival in Brazil. Reception at the airport by our cooperation partners and transfer to the hotel. Overnight.

DAY 3 (Friday) FOZ DO IGUAZU

Breakfast. Today we begin to admire the most beautiful spectacle of Brazil and South America. Full day visit to the waterfalls. We start with the Argentine side and cross the Tancredo Neves Bridge, in direction of the Iguacu National Park. At the entrance, a small train takes visitors on a tour of the park, making 2 stops up to the paths on the way to the top of the falls, where there is a spectacular, unique view of the "Cataratas", surrounded by lush nature with orchids, multicoloured birds and other wild animals. The highlight of the tour is a visit to the suspended platform at the very edge of the "Garganta do Diabo" waterfall (Devil's Throat) - the sharpest decline in the park. After lunch, we will visit the Brazilian side of the falls. Magnificent panoramic views offer the best impression over the whole extent of this unique natural spectacle. Back at the hotel for the overnight. (B) (D)

DAY 4 (Saturday) IGUAZU - RIO DE JANEIRO Domestic flight

After breakfast, transfer to the airport for your flight to Rio de Janeiro. Reception in Rio de Janeiro by our cooperation partner. Registration at the hotel. The rest of the day is at leisure. Enjoy the tranquility of the hotel and the warm waters of the Atlantic. (B)

DAY 5 (Sunday) RIO DE JANEIRO

After breakfast at the hotel we start our jeep tour of Corcovado and the Tijuca Forest, a unique excursion by jeep through the Tijuca Forest and the main attraction of the city, the Corcovado (english: the hunchback), a mountain on which the symbol of the city is located, with its 38 meters high Christ Redeemer (including base). The Corcovado in Tijuca National Park is 710 meters high and offers a view over Rio de Janeiro and the Guanabara Bay. A winding road and a cog railway, the Corcovado mountain lift lead up to near the summit of Corcovado. The afternoon is at leisure. Overnight at hotel. (B) (L)

DAY 6 (Monday) RIO DE JANEIRO

After breakfast, visit to the other landmarks of the city, El Pão de Açúcar (Sugar Loaf). The Sugar loaf is a 395 m high, steep, towering granite cliff on the peninsula in the south of the Urca Botafogo Bay, where the Guanabara Bay meets the Atlantic Ocean. It carries this name because its shape resembles a sugar loaf. To reach the Sugar Loaf Mountain you can use the funicular (called O Bondinho), whose sides are fully glazed. North of Sugar Loaf locates the Guanabara Bay with is immediately adjacent neighbourhoods, Botafogo and government district Flamengo. South and west are the beaches Vermelha, Copacabana and Leme and you can see them all from the top of the Sugarloaf; farther west are the beaches of Ipanema, Leblon and Barra da Tijuca, which, however, are not visible from Sugarloaf. Continue on to the Botanical Gardens. Back at the hotel and free time. Overnight. (B)

DAY 7 (Tuesday) RIO MANAUS – AMAZON Domestic flight

Breakfast at hotel. Early transfer to the airport for your flight to Manaus, capital of the state Amazonas. It is located on the Rio Negro, eleven kilometers from the mouth of the Amazon. In the period between 1870 and 1910, the city was known by the rubber boom, as the region has long been the sole supplier of rubber. Today we know Manaus not because of the rubber, but rather because of the Teatro Amazonas, as well as tourist base for excursions into the jungle, very rich on species, surrounding the city. Upon arrival, reception by our partners and transfer to the lodge. After the registration and short break, we go to the point where the rivers Rio Negro with black waters meet the Solimoes River with brown waters. Back to the city. After dinner, guided night tour for alligator spotting, to watch them on their natural habitat. Back to the Lodge. (B) (D)
