

Best of GERMANY by train

11 days – 10 nights
1 country / 5 days train

There are many possibilities to travel Europe. You can join a group, rent a car or travel on your own. Many destinations are always booked out and is usually very difficult to get a room in certain cities. On the other side, if you plan to travel using the train, buying your ticket on the spot could be really expensive. Nowadays, many companies are offering you rail passes, giving you the chance to travel easy and with no complications. And the most important, at affordable prices and at your own plans.

EUROLATINO offers you now the possibility to travel by train through Europe without having too much stress. You can buy your train pass by the local representative in your country and we do the rest.... Hotels reservation, excursions, transfers, restaurants, etc.. Of course, we can purchase your train pass as well, and we give you tips on how to use it. Just let us know what you wanna see and we'll advise you. Example: GERMANY BY TRAIN
Start your adventure in Frankfurt, the financial capital of Germany and headquarters of the European central bank. Continue to Cologne enjoying the beautiful rail ride along the Rhine River. You will see some of the most beautiful castles on the route. Cologne is well known because of the huge gothic cathedral. Continue to Bremen and Hamburg and be amazed with Dresden, the former residence of the Electors and King of Saxony. Of course, a visit to Germany is not completed if you miss Berlin and Munich. Curious? Get on board on the next train and live your german adventure with us.

DAY 6 HAMBURG - BERLIN

After breakfast, depart for the Federal Capital of Germany. Once in Berlin, transfer on a private vehicle and accommodation at the Hotel. Berlin is the largest city in Germany. After the Second World War was divided into four districts shared by the Allies who took the administrative responsibilities for the city. Since 1961 divided through a wall and since 1989 unified again. Afternoon tour in private coach visiting the most important attractions, the Brandenburg Gate, the German Parliament (Reichstag), and the famous Kurfürstendamm. We will also have the chance to see part of the (in)famous wall. Time for shopping. The afternoon is at leisure. You can stroll through the old East Berlin, the Cathedral, the Town Hall and the TV tower for a panoramic view of the city or you can visit the Museum Island, specially the Egyptian Museum, where you will see the beautiful bust of Nefertete. With pleasure, we can suggest you some excursions, like the Concentration Camp of Sachsenhausen, blind witness of the horror of the second World War and the Nazi Regime. Overnight. (D)

DAY 7 BERLIN - POTSDAM - BERLIN

Breakfast at the hotel. Today we will offer you a guided tour to the city of Potsdam, the capital of the State of Brandenburg, south from Berlin Center. Potsdam has several claims to national and international notability. In Germany, it had the status Windsor has in Britain because it was residence of Prussian kings and German Kaisers, until 1918. Around the city there are a series of interconnected lakes and unique cultural landmarks, in particular the parks and palaces of Sanssouci, the largest World Heritage Site in Germany, place that is included in our city tour. After visiting the park, return to Berlin. At night you can go for example to the Philharmonic or have drinks at Potsdam Square (Potsdamer Platz) or the Sony Center (not included) (D) (A)

DAY 8 BERLIN - DRESDEN - BERLIN

Breakfast at the hotel. In the morning we will head to the city of Dresden on a guided tour, in eastern Germany. Dresden has a long history as the capital and royal residence of the Electors and Kings of Saxony, who for centuries furnished the city with cultural and artistic splendor. The city was known as the Jewel Box, because of its baroque and rococo city center. We'll explore the immaculately restored Old Town including the famous Church of Our Lady (Frauenkirche), the Semper Opera House, the 'Balcony of Europe' - once Dresden's defensive rampart on the River Elbe, and the Zwinger medieval fortress - home to the Old Masters Collection featuring works by Raphael, Rembrandt, Rubens and more). Hear stories of Dresden at the medieval times, on to horrific wartime experiences, the Communist era and also discover the vibrant city of today - enjoy free time to visit the world class museums, relax on the waterfront, or stroll through the flea market. In the afternoon return to Berlin. Overnight. (D)

DAY 9 BERLIN - MUNICH

Breakfast. Departure towards Munich, the capital of the state of Bavaria. Located on the River Isar north of the Bavarian Alps, Munich is the third largest city in Germany, behind Berlin and Hamburg. Its native name, München, is derived from the Old High German Munichen, meaning "by the monks' place". The city's name derives from the monks of the Benedictine order who founded the city; hence, the monk depicted on the city's coat of arms. Once in the city, transfer on private vehicle to your hotel. Later on, walk through the historic city center, including Karlstor Gate, the Cathedral of Munich (Frauenkirche), the Odeon Square and Marienplatz (Marien Square) where the city hall is located. (D)

DAY 10 MUNICH

After breakfast, leave the hotel on a guided tour to visit the most visited monument in Germany, the Neuschwanstein Palace. Departing from Munich, you'll first visit Linderhof Castle, a French rococo-style castle inspired by Versailles itself and surrounded by immaculately manicured gardens. A quick shopping and photo stop in the charming village Oberammergau will recharge your batteries for the second half of your day. You'll arrive at idyllic Neuschwanstein Castle around 1:00 p.m, where you're free to enjoy approximately 4 hours to explore the castle. Wander through the scenic German countryside on your way to the legendary extravagance of the German castles Neuschwanstein and Linderhof. Known for their elaborate construction and world-famous architecture, these two extraordinary structures were dreamed up by Germany's own Ludwig II, also known as the Swan King. You'll soon find out why many believe Neuschwanstein inspired Disney's storybook castles -get ready to feel like you're living a real-life fairy tale. Hidden in the seclusion of the mountains, German King Ludwig II built two of his dream castles: Neuschwanstein and Linderhof. Both testify to the vision of Bavaria's fairytale King. Return to Munich. Overnight. (B)

DAY 11 MUNICH - AIRPORT

Breakfast at the Hotel. Before leaving the airport for your flight back home, we will have time to see the city again, go hopping or do another tour. We suggest you to visit Nymphenburg Castle to complete your vision of Germany. After check-in at the airport, end of our services. (B)

(B) Breakfast (L) Lunch (D) Dinner
