TOTALECLIPSE OF THE SUN

CHILE CAMP 2020

Again there will be a unique astronomical event in the skies of South America. After 17 months, on December 14, 2020 a total Eclipse of the Sun will delight sky watchers from Chile's La Araucania region. EUROLATINO Tour Operators is pleased to invite you to experience this unique phenomenon in one of the best viewing spots in the country. The chosen scenario for this adventure is a private plot located near Pucón (39-16-36"S 71-58-28"W) where you will have 100% visibility of the solar eclipse. The total duration of the eclipse will be 2 hours and 50 minutes, but you can admire the totality in 2 minutes and 7.9 seconds. This eclipse will peak around 13:03 local time (UTM 16:03) We invite you to enjoy a unique and unforgettable observation of the Eclipse Chile 2020! near Pucón, where we will have a special and comfortable place to live this amazing experience. Live your eclipse experience by knowing Chile the way you want, whether in just 5 days or a full 10-day experience. We also offer you the Atacama Desert to complete your adventure in South America.

SHORT EXPERIENCE

DAY 2 Sunday 13 December
TEMUCO - PUCON Full Day Tour
Eyes of the Caburgua & Lake Caburgua

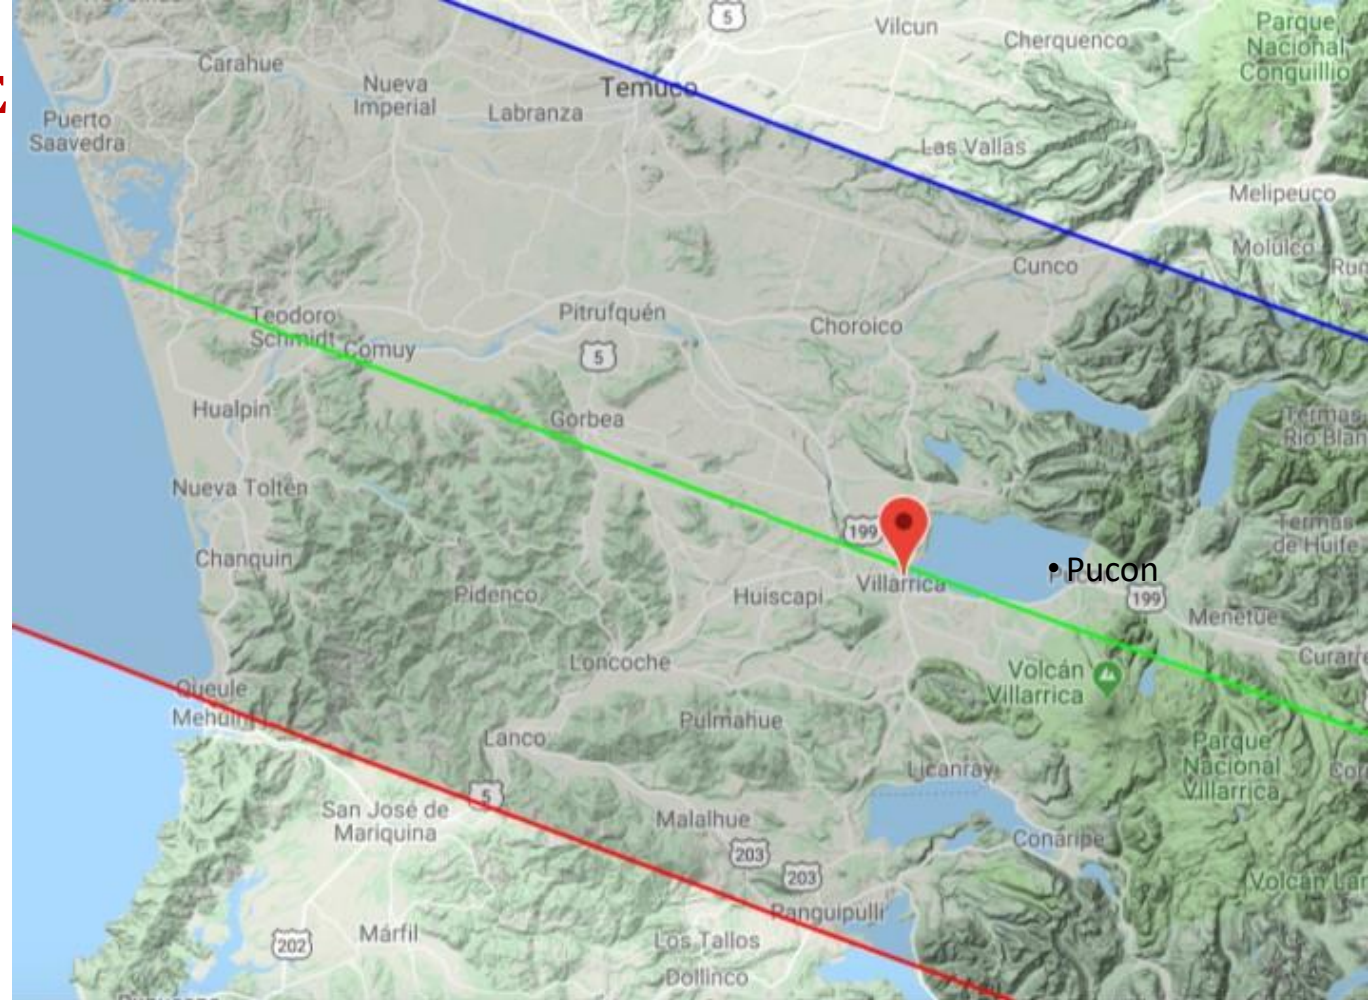

Breakfast at the hotel. Departure from the hotel to the small village of Caburgua located 25 km from the city of Pucón. This particular area offers a lot of attractions such as rivers, forests and mountains. The Trancura and Liucura rivers are ideal places for rafting and sport fishing. Spectacular views of the three volcanoes Villarrica, Quetrupillán and Lanín accompany us almost the entire route. Already in Ojos del Caburgua you can see numerous waterfalls of great color in a set of beautiful turquoise pools surrounded by native forests typical of the Valdivian jungle. In this beautiful place emerges an underground river that is the drainage of the famous Lake Caburgua. In the end, we will start our journey to Lake Caburgua, 2 km from the place. With an altitude of 700 meters above sea level, and an approximate dimension of 7,700 hectares, the lake is surrounded by the traditional Valdivian jungle that floods the place. Popular legend provides data such as that in the center of the lake there is a large crater of an extinct volcano and that would be the reason why this lake never finds its bottom. We will visit Black Beach and its scenic attractions with mountains completely covered by the typical afforestation of the Valdivian jungle.

SHORT EXPERIENCE

DAY 3 Monday 14 December
TEMUCO – PUCON - TEMUCO
The eclipse experience

After breakfast, we will head to our chosen observation site, where you will experience this magnificent moment of lunar shadow ... The Lunar Shadow Road in 2020 brings eclipse seekers back to Chile and Argentina for another shadow crossing less than 18 months after 2019, but this time it arrives in the southern hemisphere summer and at a location of 1000 km to the south. The climate along the 2020 eclipse route is largely controlled by three factors: the large high-pressure subtropical systems (anticyclons) over the South Pacific and the South Atlantic, the cold Humboldt Current along the coast of Chile, and the Andes Mountains Barrier which has a height of 3 to 4 km and creates a vast rain shadow in much of the center of Chile Argentina.

DAY 3 Monday 14 December
TEMUCO – PUCON - TEMUCO
The eclipse experience

In both Chile and Argentina, summer is the dry season, with a number and frequency of rains well below winter highs. On site, you can find a quiet place to prepare your equipment, enjoy a typical country barbecue or just rest before the main event. Plus, to give you a complete experience at this place, you can enjoy a star observation before returning to your hotel. The place will be fully equipped with chairs, tables, tents, bathrooms, mineral water, wine, juice, tea, coffee, lunch and all the comfort you need to get a great experience. Return to the hotel.
